I would like to dedicate this literary website to my very dearest wife and help Alison and to my beloved older brother David who saved me from drowning when I was 3 years old and he was 8

I having fallen into a tank of water

David went on to love me and encourage all my creative activities and also I dedicate the website to my younger brother by 2 years Hubert to whom I told my first stories to send us to sleep when we shared a bedroom thanks

Michael
